Procurement Services

corcentric.com

Construction companies miss up to 30% of negotiated procurement savings. At Corcentric, we combine the power of managed purchasing, processes, and administration so that you can build revenue, reduce spend, and get access to your working capital.

Even in strong economic times, the construction industry faces challenges with trade uncertainties, safety issues, declining labor shortages, and an urgency to reduce costs. No company understands this more than Corcentric, with a proven track record of helping companies reduce costs and save time. Our purchasing power of over 800,000 vehicles and 1,700 customers worldwide, enables the strongest possible national programs with over 135 key suppliers. At Corcentric, procurement and financial experts work to transform and optimize a company's success.

Our diversified supplier base provides exceptional service on time with excellent national coverage, which contributes to reduced downtime for your business. Corcentric provides competitively priced, pre-sourced programs combined with flexible credit options, electronic payments, and a cloud-based transaction automation and analytics platform that cuts your costs and simplifies your payables administration.

Our experts work with you to identify where inefficiencies currently exist and how best to streamline your processes.
